Lasell Junior College

Auburndale, Massachusetts

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR

THE 1957 LAMP

CLASS OF LASELL JUNIOR COLLEGE

PRESIDENT RAYMOND C. WASS

Since the day we first entered Lasell as a class of Freshmen in the Fall of 1955, we have come to know, and honor, a large number of dedicated people who have made the years of our education here both profitable and pleasant, and whose sole care has been to guide us toward the desired goal of being informed and cultivated young women.

Among these, however, one person stands out by having made an impression on us which promises to be one of our lasting memories of Lasell. In spite of the fact that he teaches no classes and that few of us have had the occasion for close daily contact with him, not one of us but has become increasingly aware of the benign and powerful influence of this man in the background our college careers.

Never too busy to lend a sympathetic ear to the story of our troubles, an understanding counselor in academic and professional matters, and an enthusiastic witness of our successes, he has come to symbolize in our minds all the friendliness and wisdom and personal care we associate with a Lasell education.

It is with real gratitude and affection that we of the Senior Class take this opportunity to dedicate The 1957 Lamp to our President, Mr. Raymond C. Wass.
